THE INTRODUCTION:

Being a modest Curse against the Enemies of our Pea

HOLD damn'd rebellious Vipers, don't be seen, Thus to advance your selves above your Queen.
Cease your vain Wishes; may you ne'er be blest,
That envy and disturb our Sion's Rest;
For After-Ages, sure, will tell the Story,
How you, even you, have envy'd Sion's Glory.
VVhat! has your haughty Minds, and hungry Zeal, Devour'd all your Sences at one Meal?
Or, do you mean once more your VVits to try,
To bring your Master by Phlebotomy?
Or, has your Hell-bred Thoughts thus thought it good
To turn Old England to a Field of Blood?
Or, has your Counsellor, the Christian Turk,
Still Plots in store to carry on the Work?
No, pray leave off your Tricks, and now begin,
First to repent, and next reform within.
Then let's be Friends, bury your Crimes, and call Your shatter'd Sences to the Funeral.
This I advise, This I would have you do;
If not, assure your selves, I'll curse you too:

Thus,

May Heaven your Plotting Tricks all overthrow,
And make you, and your Babes, your selves to know.
Big may you all, being whipt from Town to Town,
Like Vagabonds, that envy Anna's Crown.
Let Torments still pursue you, till you know
Your Duty, and your just Obedience too.
And let this Age, now living, live to see
The just Rewards of your Impiety.
Let Cain's deep Character, that made him rue,
Be once more, rightly, now entail'd on you,
And all that hate the Queen, or would debar
The Most Illustrious House of Hanover.
Therefore repent, that Heaven, whilst you live,
May your past Crimes, and all your Sins forgive.
Then, in God's Name, my self will bless you too;
And that's a't much, or more, than th' Pope can do.

 To help the Poor, and Widow's Right maintain.
 O that ill-bred Cur that comes to Town,

 Take the Cur and roast him for his Grease.
 And let it be sold, and the Price given to the Poor.

NOTE that the Moon's Age being taken notice of by the this Table, you may obtain the time of High-water at all Places above-nam'd. (Observe) when the Moon is one or sixteen old, it is High-water at London, Tinmouth, Harlepool, &c. At 3 and 48 Minutes past, observe the same of the rest, which is plain to the meanest Capacity: The Day of the Moon's Age you have on the Column in every left Hand Page of the Almanack,

The Use and Explanation of the Almanack.

In the Left-hand Page there are eight Columns; the first shews the Days of the Month, the second the of the VWeek, the third shews the Fastes and Festival used in the Church of England, as also the Rising, Setting, and Southing of the 7 Stars, and other fixed Stars; the fourth shews the Sun's Place; the fifth the Moon's Dominion over the Body of the Earth; the sixth shews the Moon's Age to every Day of the Month, which answers to the Moon's Age in the Tide-Table, and is the most easie and readiest to find the Time of High-water at all those Ports and Places found in the Table; the seventh Column shews the Time of the Moon's rising and setting in Hours and Minutes; from the Change to the Full you may find the Time of her setting in Hours and Minutes; and from the Full to the Change you have her rising also in Hours and Minutes, A. standing for Afternoon, M. for Morning. Example: Suppose you would know when the Moon sets on the 15th Day of January Year, over-against which Day in the Column of the Moon's Rising and Setting you have 6. 2. which shews the Moon sets at 6, and 2 Minutes past, in the Afternoon, denoted by A standing over it: And so of the rest. The last Column of this Page, shews the usual Aspects of the Planets and the VVeather.

The Right-hand Page hath five Columns; the first shews the Day of the Month, according to the English Account; the second by the Roman Account; the third shews the rising, and the fourth the setting of the Sun; (thus:) January 12. the Sun rises at 7 a Clock, and 46 Minutes past; and sets at 4, and 14 past; and so of the rest. The fifth and last Column shews the Fulls, Changes, and Quarters of the Moon, with Astrological Observations on every Month.

January hath xxxi Days.

Once more, Great Queen, in rude Poetick Strains,
I will invoke the drowzy God of Brains,
First to assist, and next to guide my Quill,
That I may chant Great ANNA's Praises still.
Go on Great Queen, and may you still be blest
With Honour, Victory, and Immortal Rest.

12	7 39	4 21	At the New Moon on the fifth day of
13	7 40	4 20	this Month, all the Planets except Saturn

17	7 44	4 16	at which time the Sun also suffers an E-

Of the Eclipses this present Year 1705.

THere will in this Year, 1705, happen but two Eclipses and both of the Glorious Lamp of Heaven, the Sun.

The first of which will be on the 11th day of May, it begins about Sun-setting, and so, by consequence is not like to be seen in our Horizon; but may, if the Air be clear be seen in the Southern Parts of the World, a great Eclipse it happens in the very beginning of Gemini, the Ascendant of London, but it being invisible to us, I shall take no further notice of it, but proceed

To the second which happens on the 5th day of November, a day remarkable for the damn'd Hell-hatch'd Powder Plot, and as remarkable for our deliverance from Popery, Slavery, wooden Shoes, and French Fetters by the assistance of our late Sovereign K. William III. An. 1688. This Eclipse also is invisible to us, but will appear great to the remote Parts of France and Spain; this happens in about 24 Degrees of Scorpio, the French King's Ascendant; and by this time all France and Spain, nay he himself is very sensible of his Condition, having severely, for his Ambition, felt the Fury of the Allies, whom God prosper, and let the Weight of a Woman's Hand crush the bloody Tyrant, and so much end the Eclipses of this Year.

But besides these Eclipses there happens on January 9th a Conjunction of Saturn and Mars in the very latter end of Aries, the Sun in Square to them both: this will throw the World into a Hurry.

Also on April 9th there is a Conjunction of Jupiter and Mars, the Moon applying to a Square of both, it falls in the Degrees of Gemini.

And on November 16th happens an Opposition of Saturn and Mars from Taurus and Scorpio. Saturn in the Ascendant of Ireland, and Mars in his own Domal Dignities, this will make hopeful Work; a Potent Enemy bowes, but I am in room, and must leave Time to reveal the Effects of all,

An Account of the Regal Succession from the Union of the two Houses of Lancaster and York, call'd the Red and White Rose, in the Year 1485, to the Settlement of the Protestant Line by Act of Parliament in the Year 1701. in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, &c.

AFTER the Death of King Richard III. the Houses of Lancaster and York were united, by the Marriage of Henry VII. with Elizabeth eldest Daughter of King Edward IV.
by whom he had several Children, but was only succeeded by King Henry VIII. which King Henry VIII. came to the Crown Anno 1509. He had six Wives, but only Children by three of 'em, viz. by Katharine of Spain, the Relick of his Brother Arthur, he had Queen Mary; by Jane Seymour King
Edward VI. and by Anne Bullen, the never to be forgotten, Glorious, Good Queen Elizabeth. These all reign'd after him successively, but all dy'd without Issue.

Then, for want of Issue by the Male-side, the just Title to the Crowne of England descended to King James VI. of Scotland, from Margaret the eldest Daughter of Henry VII. of England, which Lady Margarite was married to James IV.
King of Scotland, and by him had James V. which James V.
was married to Mary of Lorain, and by her had one only Daughter named Mary, and was Queen after him. This Queen was first married to Francis II. King of France, by whom she had no Issue; then afterwards to Henry Stewart, Lord Darnley, by whom she had James VI. which King James VI. of Scotland, became James I. of England, it be-
zabeth*.

This King James I. of England was married to Anne, Daughter to Frederick the second, King of Denmark, by whom he had Issue, Henry, Charles, Elizabeth, Mary, and Sophia, which two last dy'd young, and also before the Father dy'd Prince Henry.

So the Crown next descended to his second Son Charles, who came to the Crown on March 27th, Anno 1625. and was married to Henrietta Maria, Daughter to King Henry IV. of France, by whom he had Issue Charles-James, born at Greenwich, May 13th, 1628. but dy'd in a short time after; Charles II. born May 30th, 1630. Mary, born November 4th, 1631. James II. born October 14th, 1633. Elizabeth, born January 28. 1635. Anne, born March 17th, 1637. and dy'd before her Father; Henry, Duke of Gloucester, born July 8th 1639. Katharine, who dy'd almost as soon as born, and Henrietta, born June 16th, 1644. This Royal Prince was murder'd before his own Palace-Gate, on January 30th, 1648. and was succeeded by his eldest Son then living, viz. King Charles II. who was married to Katharine, Daughter to John IV. King of Portugal, and he dying without Issue by her, was succeeded by his Brother King James II. who was first married to Anne, Daughter to the Earl of Clarendon, by whom he had two Daughters, viz. Mary, born April 30th, 1662. and Anne, born February 6th, 1664. Mary, the eldest Daughter, was married to William Henry Nassau, Prince of Orange, whose Mother was Mary, Daughter to King Charles I. which Prince and Princess, upon the Abdication of K. James II. became jointly King and Queen of these Kingdoms; but on December 28th, 1694, this Glorious Queen dy'd of the Small-pox, and the Government left wholly to King William, during his Life; which worthy and renown'd Hero, as a second Josiah, yielded to the Stroke of Death on March 8th, 1701, 2. and was then succeeded by the Most Serene, Most Glorious, Victorious and Religious Queen Anne, second Daughter to K. James II. whom God grant long to live and reign in Peace over us. She was married to his Royal Highness George Prince of Denmark in July, 1683. by whom she has had many Children, but by the Will of God, having none to live: If she die without Issue, the Crown of England is settled, by Act of Parliament, on the most Illustrious House of Hanover, which Line came in by the Marriage of Elizabeth, Daughter of K. James I. to Frederick, the Fifth Elector Palatine and King of Bohemia, by whom he had the Princess Sophia, who was born Anno 1630. and was married in the Year 1658 to Ernest Augustus, late late Elector of Hanover, by whom she had George Lewis, the present Elector, born Anno 1660. and married in the Year 82 to his Cousin Sophia Dorothy, only Daughter of George William Duke of Cell, by whom he has two Princes living, George Augustus, born 1683. and William Ernest, born 1685. to which Illustrious Family the Crown of England descends by Act of Parliame<sup>nt</sup>, for want of Issue by our most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, whom God grant long to reign here, and at length to crown her with Eternal Glory. Amen.

Observations on the Four Quarters of the Year.

IN the next place I shall consider the four Quarters of the Year, from the Sun's entrance into the four Cardinal Points, but first shall remind my Reader of what has happen'd and exactly come to pass according to my former predictions; and he that has been so careful to keep my Almanacks, will find much that came to pass in the Year 1701. but in 1702 I shall recite some particulars, viz. in May that Year the Earl (now Renowned Duke) of Marlborough was advanc'd, as I hinted, a Martial Man or Officer should, from the Trine of the Sun and Mars the preceding Month. In July that Year I said, where Armies are in the Field, much skirmishing; and in the Month of August I told you of a down right fighting, at which time the French were beat, and many Ships came safe home, as I then predicted. In the very Month of November, the very same Year, I told you of good News from abroad, Remember Vigo and the Plate Fleet, (God bless the Duke of Ormond.) Then in the Year 1703, and latter end of the Month of April, I pray'd, God preserve London from Fire; at which very time a lamentable Fire happen'd at Wapping. In the Month of May I spoke of the unsuccessfulness of Plots since the Powder-Plot; and on the 13th of that very Month were one Perey, Tawod, and one Mrs. Richardson, sent to Newgate for conveying Letters from France obscurely written. In June, that Year, I hinted of Self-murders, at which time, near Cornhil, in London, particularly, two Persons threw themselves out of the Windows, where they dwelt, and were kill'd. In November, that Year, I spake of some Villany brought to light, and in a little time Sir John Mackleane was taken, as also o Bowcher, Moody, Oglebee, and Keith a Scot, with one Clan an Apothecary of London, for acting against the Government. Again, in the Year 1704, observe how I hit the mark in the Month of April, at the opening of the Campaign that Year, saying, many should be turn'd headlong into the grave of despair, and that Bavaria particularly should pay the Piper, O Ungrateful Prince! which I hit he did to the loss of his whole Country. In the Month of July I told you there was quick work in hand, and that the Soldiery of Nations were busy, hinting at the Bravery and Success of the English Souldiers; I hinted also of an Action at Sea in that Month, at which time a Swedish Man of War that refused to strike, was taken by the English, and nine Merchant Ships under her Convoy. And lastly, in the Month of August, I said, the industrious Merchant would receive good News from abroad, at which time the Virginia Fleet came safe home, and well laden; and also I intimated that the Grand Allies would receive good News both by Sea and Land, whilst Lewis the Little should sit biting his Finger's ends, and that his Pride would have a Fall, at which time both the French and Bavarian Armies were beat out of Germany, and such a Slaughter made amongst 'em, that the like has not been heard of in this age, besides the taking of Gibraltar from the Spaniards, a very strong place at the mouth of the Streights of that name. Much more I could say, but this I think enough to convince the Enemies of Astrology, and proceed to give judgment of the four Quarters of the Year, according to my usual Method. And first of

The Winter Quarter.

Which commences at such time as the Sun enters Capricornus, which happens on the 10th day of December, 1704 near 5 in the Afternoon, according to Mr. Wing's Table at which time about 14 degrees of Cancer ascend, and 14 degrees of Pisces culminate; Saturn at the same time is ed in the Eleventh House in Trine to the Sun near the venth, and in Square to Venus. This Quarter is taken up Council more than Action; many hot Spirits at work, and some under the mask of Religion, yea and such who seem be more holy than their Brethren, will be very busy in sling Animosities in the Nation, but their hope and ends are vain,

*For some fly high, this is the Nations shame,
And some fly low, these are as much to blame,
These Elves on both sides have in malice store,
And wou'd the Medium, true Church wound and gore,* wou'd they have their Wills, and then fall together by the sides amongst themselves, and have no Church at all; now our Senators as busy in contriving matters (I hope) to good purpose, and in a short time some Hero meets with Affliction; England flourishes under the protection of a glorious Queen. The Haters of the present Government seem unhappy; what a mad World do we live in, some love the Queen and the Church of England, some love the Queen but not the Church, (Twang said the Boy to the Parson) but some love neither, the Queen nor the Church; this I believe will be true. Saturn is now got into Taurus, and Ireland will be of his Kindness, the Moles of that Country will be working, and the Transit of Mars through that Sign will cause duelling in that Kingdom. Jupiter becomes direct in Gemini, and is of good Import to London. The Merchant receives good News from beyond the Seas before the Quarter ends, and there will be much preparation to oppose the common Enemy of Europe.

*Some to the War purely for Honour go,
And some indeed to fight the daring Foe;
Some skulk in Holes, not daring once to fight,
And some like Thieves lie plund'ring in the Night.
This is the Trade of War, thus goes the game,
P--x take their worships, is not this a shame?*

Pick-pockets of the Trade I mean, and this brings me to consider

The Spring Quarter.

Which takes its beginning at such time the Sun moves first point of the Equinoctial Sign Aries, which according to Mr. John Wing's Tables in Scientia Stellarum, happens March 9th, at 5 min. and 36 seconds past 7 at night, but Mr. Streer's Tables at 41 min. and 24 seconds past 6 at night by the former 25 degrees of Cancer are upon the Mid-heaven and 19 degrees of Libra ascend, the Moon applies to a Square of Saturn and Mars, and Mercury in Square at the same time this will put forward some sly and roguish Exploit, murthering and underhand dealing amongst Men, let the Assassins meet with their just Reward in a Halter. Mars is in the Eighth House, near the Cusp of the Ninth: God preserve the City of London from violent Feavers, and from Plague. The larger sort of Cattle are menaced with a mortality, well as Persons of elder Years. Ireland labours under many troubles, the Rapparees are very busy in working their destruction. Jupiter's Position in the Ninth House denotes that Religion shall be encouraged, and Immorality punished by the Care of the Magistrates, and not by the Heavens punishing Crew, who pretending to peep into their Neighbour's Faults, will pick up a Whore at the next Corner themselves. The Merchant now meets with good Returns from abroad. Mars is disposed of by Mercury in the Scheme, which will put some into a way of thieving, which in time may bring them to hanging. Armies begin to march towards the Field, but not much Action this Quarter. Much Contentions, many Heats and Animosities, some for this and some for that; some that are crazy headed would have their young St. Germain's Master, and others stark raving long for French Fetters and wooden Shoes, whilst all hearts cry, Long live Queen ANNE, and wish well to the House of Hanover. The rebellious Israelites were not content till they had a King, and when they had him they were not contented with him: Even so the restless Tribe amongst us, had they a Change every Month, they would always murmur; but now their Hope is lost, and neither the King, his Gold, nor the Devil, can help them, though the Devil means to set the Irish to plot, (O bone, poor Dear John)

And Predictions for the Year 1705.

they have not forgot 88. a fatal Year to them : O their Lands and Livings and the good things they pro themselves in England turn'd to Rags and wooden as soon as they took footing on French Mould.

poor Shouls, Shaint Patrick left them quite, to St. George they quickly took their flight :

George he kick'd and tost 'em out of door, strait they posted to the Gallick Shore ;

Dennis spies 'em, and begins to frown, ing, you silly sots, depart the Town.

Then their Ring-leader marches on amain find out Shames, the good old Shaint of Spain.

ere being come, and finding no relief, lay them down, and die with very grief.

Mortals, had they not better have stay'd in their own ry and feasted upon Potatoes, and walked like Gentle- in their Brogues, and Cadocs, than to have gone to to wear Rags and wooden Shoes ; I hope those left will learn more wit. The Diseases this Quarter are affect the Breast ; Plurifies will be very violent, of timely care must be taken ; as also Affliction in the and Kidnies, Pains in the Arms and Shoulders, Win- in the Blood, and all Diseases of a hot and moist na- and this brings me to which begins at such time as bright Phœbus mounts the al Sign Cancer, making the longest day with us, and as this Year on June 10th, at about half an hour past eight, at which time 20 degrees of Sagittarius ascend, 4 degrees of Libra culminate, also 5 of the 7 Planets in the Seventh House ; Mars, the Patron of war, is in the Eighth in Leo, a fiery Sign. Italy is threatned, the Pope has got his Fingers in the Fire, it will be hard to keep the War out of his Territories ; many Skir- and Towns besieged, and the English have the Glory day : Scotland, I have often admonished thee to be French Gold may be thy ruine ; many roguish Exploits, let the Actors be rewarded. France now bows the for the Intrigues of that bloody Prince lie open now whole world, &c.

The Summer Quarter.

No

*No Tyrant on the Earth since Nero's time, Did with the Devil like him yet combine,
To murder Subjects, raise intestine War
In divers Nations, as well near as far.*

The Diseases this Quarter will not vary much from those of the last, only that the Head will be more afflicted, and that at the end of this Quarter, and proceed to the next, it being

The Autumnal Quarter.

Which takes its beginning at such time as Sol enters Libra making the Days and Nights again of equal length, and begins on September 12th, 36 min. and 42 seconds past 8 in the morning, when 27 degrees of Libra ascend, and 6 of Libra on the Medium Cæli, Mars is in Conjunction with the Sun near the Cusp of the 12th, and Saturn at the same time square to Venus, and Jupiter Mercury, Saturn is in Taurus, upon the 12th Cusp of the 8th House; this imports no good to Ireland, it threatens Mortality, as well as stubborn Diseases and Plagues amongst Men, for Saturn is retrograde there; the two Superiors are now drawing towards their first Separation since their Conjunction in Aries, and may compose some Differences; but Jupiter's Square to Mercury will raise various Reports to amuse the World; and that of Saturn and Venus afflicts some Lady of Note: The Opposition of Saturn to Mercury, in the beginning of November, will help forward the Effects of the Sun's Eclipse at that time. Let the French beware, France and Spain are both threatened, &c.

The Diseases of this Quarter are Small-pox, Scurvy, Head-ach, and such like, the Face and Teeth afflicted, thus I end my Astrological Judgments this Year, and in the next place give my Reader

An Account of the Emblems and Mottoes adorning the Triumphant Arches erected for the reception of K. Charles III. of Spain when he landed at Lisbon in Portugal, as I saw it in a Letter from thence to a worthy Gentleman in London.

THE first was the Transfiguration on Mount Tabor, presenting Spain, with this Motto, In quo bene compleretur in whom I am well pleas'd. 2. Jonas cast into the Whale, with this Motto, Petra movetur Tempestate, the Rock is by a Storm. 3. Pharaoh drown'd in the Red Sea, representing the French King drown'd in Human Blood, his Motto, Dextra Domini percussit me, the right hand of the Lord hath smitten me. 4. Judith with the Head of Holofernes in her hand, representing the Queen of Great Britain, the House of Bourbon ruined, the Motto was, Dedisti regnum in manu Fœminæ, thou hast given Power into the hands of a Woman. 5. The Damsel dancing before King David, representing the Spanish Monarchy rejoicing at the death of Charles III. the Motto, Abstulit Opprobrium Gentis, he hath taken away the Reproach of our Nation. 6. A blind Man restored to sight, representing the Duke of Savoy, the Motto, Modo video, I now see. 7. K. Saul giving the Soldier to kill him, representing the Duke of Bavaria in despair, the Motto, Tenet me Angustia, Distress and Grief is come upon me. 8. Judas hanging himself, representing Cardinal Portocarrero, his Motto was, Peccavi tradens sanctum justum, I have sinn'd in betraying innocent Blood, &c.

Next I shall present my Reader with a Prophecy found in the Vatican Library at Rome, written by one Conradus Lycosthenes, and printed at Basil, An. 1536. which has given great encouragement to the House of Austria, thinking it is a Promise of good success to Charles III. this made a great noise at the time, and his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury sent an account of the Letter thereof, something whereof has been hinted in the News-papers formerly, which might not come to every best Countryman's hand, I thought it not amiss to insert here, and is as follows, from the Original, &c.

THE PROPHECY:

In Hispaniæ quodam oppido die Februarij mensis septimo, 1536. circa horam noctis secundam, ut ex alijs Fincelius recitat, visi in caelo aquoso ac nubilo, duo adolescentes armati, gladijs condecorati, quorum unus habuit in leva manu parvam Aquila inscriptam, cum inscriptione, REGNABO, alter vero scutum longum cum inscriptione, REGNAVI. Verum cum monarchiam instituisent Aquilam habens prostrato hoste victor demum cessavit.

In English thus:

In a certain place of Spain, on the 7th day of February, 1536. 2 hours after the setting of the Sun, as Fincelius relates lates after others, were seen in the Air, which was and cloudy, two young Men in Armour, fighting with Swords, one of 'em having in his left hand a Shield or round Buckler adorned with an Eagle, with this Inscription, I SHALL REIGN, and the other having a long Target, with the words, I HAVE REIGNED: they fought a Duel, he who had the Eagle on his Buckler beat down his Enemy and was Conqueror. The Words I have reigned, are thought to signify Philip V. and Grandson to the French King; the Words, I shall reign, to signify K. Charles III. Archduke of Austria, and Son to the Emperor of Germany. When this Prophecy came first to light, those bigotted to a French Interest look'd very pale upon it, and those that had a great will to the House of Austria, and more particularly to the Freedom of all Europe, were much heartened by the fact; because the Prophecy was printed many years before the debate concerning the Spanish Monarchy was thought of.

Some say it relates to the War between Charles V. and Francis III. but neither the Age nor Description will agree with it, and besides it is plain that since the Year 1536 nothing has happened that may agree with this Prophecy till now, and as the Scene is now in Spain, it must of consequence signify Philip V. who has reigned, and Charles III. who shall reign, &c. and then the young Ginger-bread Gentleman may go home to his Grandfire, and curse Portocarrero for his Council and Forgery of the late K. of Spain's Will, &c.

And lastly, I shall present to my kind Reader one Prophecy more, which was printed in the Year 1632. in which you have the following Prediction: 1st. That the Emperor should marry 3 Wives successively, but only have Heirs by the last. 2<sup>ly</sup>. That the King of Spain should die without Issue An. 1700. and a French Prince should usurp that Crown.
3<sup>ly</sup>. That the French King should go near to attain to Universal Monarchy, but that in 1704 he should receive such a Blow, as should oblige him to restore most of his Conquests. 4<sup>ly</sup>. That the Emperor should at that time have two Male Heirs, one whereof should be declared King of Spain. And, lastly, That a Peace should be concluded in 1707. after France has restored what has been taken from the House of Austria, and that the Emperor should die in 84th Year of his Age, he was born in May 1640. and is 64 compleat, &c.

This Prophecy was found in a Book in the Library of Count Kipenberg at Vienna, &c.

Now that the Emperor has had 3 Wives 'tis true, the first is Margarita Maria Teresa of Spain; the second was the Archduchess of Inspruck; and the third, Eleonora Magdalena Teresa, Daughter to the late Prince Palatine, and Duke of Savoy, by whom he has 2 Male Heirs, viz. Joseph K. of the Romans, and Charles III. of Spain.

So hoping what I have writ will not be disagreeable to Well-wishers of our Queen and her Allies, I shall confide with God preserve our most gracious Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE, and give her Victory over all her Enemies here, with a long and prosperous Reign over these Kingdoms, at length to receive her into the Everlasting Mansions of Bliss, to reign in Peace eternally for evermore. Amen.

Gentlemen,

Yours and Urania's Votary,

FRANCIS MOORE.

In the Sign of Old
Lilly, near the Old Barge-house in Christchurch Parish, Southwark, Aug. 19. 1704.

The CONCLUSION.

Now farewell Book, go take thy Chance and flee Throughout Great Britain, let my Masters see What News thou hast, tell them what is to come,
Let it be good or bad, tell all and some;
If any carp against my harmless Pen,
Say I am frail, like other mortal Men:
This I know well, I ne'er shall pleasure all,
No Man did ever yet, nor never shall;
Let I'll take care, let Life be short or long,
Not to offend, with either Pen or Tongue:
Therefore go boldly on, and make no stay,
Let Briers, Thorns, or Spears, lie in thy way,
Speak friendly unto all, greet every Man,
And then conclude with God preserve Queen ANNE.
